

AMENDMENT TO H. RES. 676
OFFERED BY M____.

Add at the end the following new section:

1       SEC. 4. (a) The Office of the General Counsel shall 2 ensure that, with respect to any civil action initiated or 3 in which the House intervenes pursuant to this resolution,
4 each member of the House of Representatives (including 5 each Delegate or Resident Commissioner to the Congress)
6 is treated as an equal plaintiff or intervener for purposes
7 of the Office's work on the action, including for purposes
8 of consultation regarding strategy, the application of the 9 attorney-client privilege to any work product which is gen-
10 erated with respect to the action, and any decisions relat-
11 ing to the employment of an outside counsel or expert 12 under section 3, including the terms and conditions of any 13 contract with such counsel or expert.

14       (b) If the Office of the General Counsel enters into 15 a contract to employ an outside counsel or other expert
16 under section 3, the contract shall include a provision re-
17 quiring such counsel or expert to meet the same require-18 ments with respect to each member of the House as the 19 Office is required to meet under subsection (a).
